The City of Greensburg
City Hall

We have a blog!

City Administrator Kyler Ludwig is looking for new avenues to engage the community in city decision making. This newsletter and Write on the Wall at the City Hall are prime examples of that.

We also have a blog with posts that will be written regularly to keep people informed about issues, ideas, and decisions of the City Council.

Write on the Wall at City Hall

There are so many responsibilities that the City has, and it is easy for things that the community values to get forgotten in the hustle and bustle of our daily tasks. We believe that it is essential for the City Council to set annual priorities; here is your opportunity to help guide their priorities.

What do you think should be priorities of the City Council in 2016? Business development? Code Enforcement? Sidewalks? Parks?

Come write on the wall at City Hall and give your thoughts!
